

I am a over the road truck driver and sattelite radio is one the best systems ever for the driving public. You don't have to continually be hunting a new radio station every 30 or 40 miles. Get what you want to hear and go, don't have the distraction of hunting across the dial. Not only is it convenient, it makes driving safer for all concerned.